The Sandy Mountain Festival Five Generation court would like your help in honoring five ladies of this community by selecting them for the 2008 court.

The rules are as follows:

1. The Queen and Princesses must have lived in the Sandy area for at least five years.
2. The Queen and Princesses must be active in the community. (In the case of princesses #3 & #4, parents' activities also count)
3. The Queen and Princesses must be willing to be representatives of our great community. In addition to the Sandy Mountain Festival Parade on July 10th, there is the traditional rose planting ceremony before the parade, and other activities associated with the Sandy Mountain Days during the month of July. Also the court may be requested to attend functions during May and June.
